8. OPP Monthly Report

Inspector Glenn Miller provided a summary of the OPP Report for the months of March and April 2019.

Following discussion of the high incidence of 911 misdials, a member inquired if any municipality has enacted a bylaw to enforce a penalty or cost recovery provisions for such calls. Inspector Miller responded that, due to the nature of the emergency 911 system, such a bylaw could not be enacted. There was additional discussion on measures taken to educate the public in the past.

A member inquired regarding firearms training for auxiliary officers. Inspector Miller explained that there are 42 auxiliary members for the Essex County Detachment, and they need to be trained to safely handle a weapon in case an officer became incapacitated. They do not, however, carry or use weapons in the course of their duties.

12. Old Business

- a. Community Safety and Well-Being Plan – CAO Update

CAO Marg Misk-Evans reported that the matter of the Town's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan has been raised with senior administration. She also intends to suggest a joint approach by Essex area municipalities in the production of this plan at the next Area CAO meeting, and will keep the board informed of next steps.

- b. Bike Patrols – OPP Update

Staff Sgt. Jamie Smith reported that, due to the ongoing wet weather this spring, bike patrols have not started. The detachment is looking into the option of involving auxiliary members in this activity. Chair Hales requested that, when a formal plan for bike patrols has been formulated, it be forwarded to the board and Town Council as there is a high level of interest. Sgt. Smith also noted that motorcycle enforcement is available for some events, with one rider based in the Tecumseh detachment.

- c. 2019 Joint Essex County Police Services Boards Meeting

Chair Hales noted that two agenda items were submitted by the board, namely Community Safety and Well-Being Planning and discussion on a local proposal for board amalgamation in response to legislative requirements. A date for the joint meeting, to be hosted by the Municipality of Leamington, has not yet been confirmed.

13. New Business

- a. New Member Orientation

Chair Hales reported that the new members have been provided with the board's reference manual. He further noted that details on legislated training for new board members (and who will deliver the training) have not been finalized yet. The new members expressed an interest in participating in an OPP 'ride along' as well as a tour of the Essex County detachment headquarters; the Recording Secretary will follow up to arrange.

b. OPP Update on Grants and Programs

Sgt. Jamie Smith thanked the board for arranging a special meeting on short notice to approve the submission to the Ministry of the Solicitor General for the Community Safety and Policing (CSP) grant program.

Chair Hales noted that, next year with more lead time, it may be advantageous to consider funding for the Community Safety and Well-Being Planning process when submitting grant applications.

c. Other New Business*i. Parking Ticket Duties for Tecumseh OPP

Staff Sgt. Smith explained that Tecumseh is the only detachment in Essex County where the detachment administrative staff complete the processing of parking tickets, as opposed to municipal staff handling this function. He provided some historical background as to how this situation came about, and indicated the OPP would prefer the Town to take over the processing of parking tickets. CAO Margaret Misk-Evans will follow up on this matter.

ii. Optimist Club's Victoria Day Fireworks

Deputy Mayor Bachetti thanked the OPP for their effective and professional policing of the recent Victoria Day Fireworks event organized by the Optimist Club. He noted that the OPP, Optimist Club and Town Administration plan to hold a debrief meeting on incidents at the event and will be making recommendations for future events to prevent similar issues.

5. New Business

a. Essex County OPP Application for Community Safety and Policing (CSP) Grant

Staff Sgt. Jamie Smith provided regrets from Essex County OPP Inspector Glenn Miller, who was out of town due to policing business. He also thanked the board for convening in special session to meet the tight provincial timelines for this grant program.

PC Blake Cohoe, a member of the Essex County OPP's Mental Health Response Unit, introduced Stephanie Bula of Hotel Dieu Grace Healthcare, a social worker with the Unit. PC Cohoe explained that the Ministry of the Solicitor General has introduced a new grant program – the Community Safety and Policing (CSP) Grant – and that, in order for the Essex County OPP's application to be considered it must include signatures of all board members from all five Essex County municipalities included in the joint grant application.

PC Cohoe then outlined the two proposals included in the grant application. The first is for a Mobile Crisis Rapid Response Team (MCRRT) that would respond to calls for persons in a mental health/addiction crisis over the age of 16. The goals of this team would be to divert individuals from hospital emergency departments and the criminal justice system, and provide supports for early future intervention.

The second proposal is for a Youth Crisis Response Team (YCRT) that would respond to calls for youth in a mental health/addiction crisis under the age of 16. The goals are similar to the MCRRT but geared to youth and children.

PC Cohoe and Ms. Bula answered a number of general questions regarding the implementation of these programs, and explained that funding could be provided for only one of the proposals (the total for both programs applied for is $389,000). The funds applied for would be used for dedicated officers throughout Essex County, community education and support to parents and community members.

Motion: PSB 22/19

Moved by: Mayor Gary McNamara
Seconded by: Member Paul Sweet

That the Police Services Board for the Town of Tecumseh support the application by the Essex County OPP to the Ministry of the Solicitor General for a Community Safety and Policing (CSP) Grant;

And that the members thereof be authorized to sign the same grant proposal.

Detachment Focus and Priorities

FOCUS

PRIORITIES

The OPP's action planning process ensures compliance with the Adequacy and Effectiveness of Police Services Regulation (Adequacy Standards) filed as O. Reg. 3/99 in 1999.

Through assessment, analysis and consultation, the following priorities were identified under three categories: crime, traffic and other policing. The priorities reflect provincial and regional issues. Subsequent local analysis and consultation will further identify the specific areas of focus for this region. Priorities will be addressed by effective management strategies combining engagement, education and enforcement. Operationalized within the construct of Ontario's Mobilization and Engagement Model of Community Policing the noted strategies coupled with each of our Communities unique initiatives will provide the foundation for sustainable community safety and reduce victimization.

Board Training – Strategic Planning

(Notes by C. Hales)

Fred Kaustinen, Executive Director of the Ontario Association of Police Services Boards (OAPSB), presented a workshop on Board Strategic Planning. The goal of the workshop was to create a typical governance model, starting with the basic definition of what exactly is the function of a Police Services Board (PSB).

The basis on which we discussed this was:

“A Police Services Board is to ensure that police activities and consequences are congruent with the community’s needs, values and expectations.”

Therefore we need to:

- Watch the police service’s performance and results and see wisely and use comparators from all sources.
- Observe crime trends, complaints, and the media’s view of our service.
- Hear the community stakeholders’ needs and expectations, including the school boards, BIA, service associations, provincial and federal regulators.
- Speak of the board’s vision, values and expected outcomes.
- Liaise with the entire community.

Resulting actions would include the board setting the strategy with the Detachment Commander (DC) around a central theme of service that would drive all the performance and activity of the service.

Opening Ceremony

The conference was formally opened by Phil Huck, Chairman of the OAPSB. He encouraged everyone attending to load the conference app and take advantage of the information contained therein. Mayor Drew Dilkins offered greetings from the City of Windsor.

First Nations Community Safety

Professor Andy Graham , Queen's University

Fabian Batise, Board Liaison, Nishnawbe Aski Police Service

(Notes by E. Preuschat)

This was an in-depth overview of the context, history, changes and challenges related to policing First Nations communities in Ontario. The new Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA) marks a turning point in this regard, as First Nation police services boards will become legally constituted bodies subject to provincial legislation. They will have the same powers and duties as municipal boards, and be subject to the same adequacy standards. This is a first in Ontario history.

Professor Graham's presentation covered:

- basic facts on Ontario's first nations communities (for example, more than 50 different languages are spoken)
- an overview of pre-colonial peacekeeping and aboriginal customary law ("memories of the Elders")
- a summary of the first treaty system and how the treaty-based policing relationship was broken by two things – the residential school genocide and apartheid-like pass system
- an overview of past funding models, and
- provincial variations in First Nations policing, some success stories, and core problems with the current policy framework

Mr. Batise's presentation covered:

- current legislated standards for municipal boards compared to the inadequacy of the status quo for First Nations communities (with numerous examples of constables working without radios or backup, in sub-standard buildings, etc.)
- features of the new CSPA that will ensure "a police officer is a police officer" regardless of whether serving municipal, OPP or First Nations communities – same standards will apply
- funding remedies for First Nations boards and communities, and
- what makes up culturally competent oversight

Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police

Chief Bryan Larkin, Waterloo Police Services Board

(Notes by E. Preuschat)

Chief Larkin outlined some of the major initiatives and concerns of the OACP:

- The association just completed its five year strategy document.
- Watch for significant changes in labour relations with the new policing legislation.
- Who will pay for third party adjudication as outlined in the new Comprehensive Ontario Police Services (COPS) Act?
- Community Safety and Well-Being Plans are a good initiative...but again, who will pay?

- Regulations associated with the new COPS Act are in process. OAPSB and all stakeholders should be at the table while these are being developed.
- Ontario has reduced the budget for policing. A different funding model needs to be considered.
- The police recruitment/selection process is outdated; it needs to better reflect the communities served.
- Digital evidence management is a significant step in modernizing in the justice system, but who will pay?
- The working committees of the OACP currently have four major areas of focus:
  1. The opioid crisis in Ontario; deaths are occurring at unprecedented levels
  2. Community Safety and Well-Being Planning
  3. Constable selection process
  4. Wellness programs
    - Some federal funds are available for PTSD, but with few details at this time.
    - The OACP is advocating for a working group to develop a provincial strategy to support wellness.

CALM: A Proven Four-Step Process to Transform Stress Into Action

Denise Marek, International Speaker/Author/Worry Management Expert

(Notes by E. Preuschat)

In her motivational and humorous presentation, Denise Marek emphasized the need to challenge our assumptions, as they often cause unnecessary stress and anxiety. She outlined the “CALM” approach to transforming worry and stress into positive action:

C – Challenge your Assumptions

- try to get facts and move beyond perceptions and assumptions. Strategies for doing this are (1) talk to someone else for a second opinion, and (2) ask yourself, “is it probable?”

A – Act to Control the Uncontrollable

- Counter the fear of looking foolish by caring more what you think of yourself (act with integrity to grow your self-respect). Counter fear of making mistakes by aiming for progress, not perfection.

L – Let Go of the Uncontrollable

M – Master Your Mind

- Strategies include: (1) focus on what you CAN do, and (2) challenge limiting beliefs by differentiating between facts and opinions.

The Community Safety & Policing Act 2019 – Ministry of the Solicitor General

Fuad Abdi, Manager, Policing Standards Section

Cecilia Omole, Team Lead, Policing Standards Section

(Notes by C. Hales & M. Misek-Evans)

Fuad Abidi, and Cecilia Omole, Policing Standards, Ministry of the Solicitor General conducted a general review of some of the provisions of the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 focusing on its core principles of diversity, inclusiveness as guaranteed by the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Human Rights Code.

Fuad and Cecilia shared that there will be many Regulations to this Act, not written yet. Consultation is yet to start, and once that is gathered from stakeholders and incorporated into the Regulations the government will have a 45 day posting and comments period before final enactment. The Ministry admits that there is no timeline as yet.

A summary of legislative changes includes:

- Enforcement of municipal by-laws and court security are not part of the police service under the new Act.
- The new Act provides for some police services to be out-sourced.
- New Act requires one OPP detachment board per OPP detachment with requirements for community representation and input; the regulations may allow for more than one board in certain circumstances.
  - Board composition, terms, remuneration are all to be determined in the regulations but unlikely to be limited to the current 5 members;
  - Boards will be required to prepare estimates for the Board's operations and submit to every municipality that gets policing services from the detachment;
  - The Board will also help choose the Detachment Commander (DC).
- Detachment Boards may set local policies after consultation with the DC.
  - Local policies must not conflict with the strategic priorities of the Solicitor General, must not relate to specific investigations and cannot force the OPP to do what they cannot do or not to do what they are required to as components of adequate and effective policing.
- The DC must develop a local action plan, with consultation.
- Board training is required and must be 'successful'.
  - Training on roles and responsibilities;
  - Recognition and respect for diverse populations;
  - Training on human rights and systemic racism.
- New Inspector General (IG) position created to:
  - Conduct investigation to ensure no act of misconduct by members of the Boards;
  - Impose a remedy for misconduct and/or non-compliance with the Act or Regulations.
- The OIPRD will be replaced with the "Law Enforcement Complaints Agency" (LECA), an independent agency that reports to the Solicitor General.
  - LECA deals with all public complaints for police and special officers of the Legislative Assembly and Niagara Parks Commission.
  - LECA refers complaints regarding the conduct of PSB members to the IG.
  - LECA may refer investigations to others like the DC or Police Chief.

- The requirement for a Community Safety & Well Being Plan comes into effect immediately with CSWB Plans due by January 1, 2021.
- The Special Investigations Unit Act is a new stand-alone statute overseen by the Attorney General that governs policy oversight.

A question and answer period followed where it became clear that many of the Section 10 boards that were being asked to amalgamate had real issues with the process, representation and the practicality of the concept.

Police Boards and the Media

Wendy Gillis, Crime Reporter, The Star

(Notes by C. Hales)

Wendy Gillis, a crime reporter for the Toronto Star was available by Skype to the conference audience. She provided her observations of the shortcomings of the interaction of PSB's with the media. Her thoughts included:

- Need to make the PSB mandate, role and function relevant to the citizenry.
  - Need to make sure the public has access to police board meetings through welcoming, neutral locations and convenient timing.
  - We should consider live streaming our PSB meetings.
  - Boards would do well to raise the public's awareness of their work.
  - All communications should be vetted to ensure that they are open, accountable and transparent. These communications need to be "real" and ring as authentic with the media.
  - Be mindful of the lessons from Thunder Bay PSB, Peterborough PSB and the real accountability that can fall on a board found not performing as expected.
  - Boards must engage in detailed training to be effective in applying the new Act. Media training is also very important, especially for larger boards.
  - Wendy ended with a review of the Senator Sinclair report on the systemic racism of the Thunder Bay Police Service and the willful "blind eye" of the PSB.

Police Boards & Police Associations

Bruce Chapman, President, Police Association of Ontario

(Notes by C. Hales & M. Misek-Evans)

Bruce Chapman, President of the Association of Ontario presented the views of the Association on the future of policing in Ontario. He represents 48 associations with a total of about 14,000 members. Essentially, Mr. Chapman presented his view of what municipalities need to do in bargaining future contracts. His view is that in the light of rising costs and new labour demands and reduced funding, it will be the board's duty to find cost savings.

Mr. Chapman recommended that PSBs influence local issues of relevance to policing and commented that strong boards are independent and effective. On the other hand, he indicated that weak boards are beholden to political players such as municipal Councils and Chiefs of Police. It is important to police personnel that the Board is getting along well with each other and the service. Mr. Chapman further recommended that PSBs do a better job of sharing information between each other and undertake training on what police officers actually do. He advocated for evidence-based policing that is data driven. He was favourable of the new training requirements set out in the Act however, he was not favourable to the provisions that allowed for outsourcing of some services.

Sexual Assault Investigation Reviews

Vanessa Ambtman-Smith, London Police Services Board

(Notes by P. Sweet)

Background

- Presenter was an Indigenous rights advocate of Métis heritage
- Stated that there was tension with the Chief & Deputy Chief
- Results from "unfounded" police sexual assault review
- London was used as a case study as what not to do in sexual assault investigations
- High urban indigenous population (did not provide statistics)

The London Police Services Board recognized there was an opportunity to assume a leadership role as a public oversight body responsible for articulating and governing adequate and effective policing.

Process

- Anonymous email input from community was accepted
- Used existing community resources in the vulnerable community
- Support from police service was thought to be lacking

Results

- After many rewrites, a new Board Policy relating to Sexual Assault Investigation was adopted
  - Board Policy that attempted to direct investigation "procedures" would have been in conflict with the PSA
- Copies of the new Policy are available on the London Police Services Board website
- Presentation was academic and high-level

Ms. Jones stated that as a result of current deficits, we pay $1.5M per day in interest charges. The control and reduction of the current debt is the cornerstone of government policy and programs. The current focus is the protection of Health Care, Security and Education. The government will support policing with policy changes such as the use of Naloxone in the treatment of opioid overdose. Her speech was very short but very focused on current government policy.

Cannabis Update: Outdoor Grow, an Industry Disrupter

Moderator: Jeanine Lassaline-Berglund

Speakers: WeedMD, 48North Cannabis Corp

(Notes by M. Gomes)

A recap of industry significant events since last year's conference began the session, including the municipal and provincial elections, new police legislation and new Cannabis Act.

The Cannabis Act has the following objectives:

- restrict youth access to cannabis
- protect young people from promotion or enticements to use cannabis
- reduce criminal activity by imposing serious criminal penalties for those who break the law
- protect public health through strict product safety and quality requirements
- reduce the burden on the criminal justice system (e.g. decreasing arrests)
- allow adults to possess and access regulated, quality-controlled legal cannabis
- enhance public awareness of the health risks associated with cannabis

Health Canada's Role

The federal framework for operators is to provide security requirements (avoid diversion to illicit markets), educate the public at large and to set rules on the production and quality of the product.

Provincial Control Role

The role of the province is to regulate how cannabis will reach the consumers. Set up the packaging and label standards. A main concern in the packaging would be make it both child resistant and tamper-evident.

Municipal Level

Determine where cannabis can be consumed within the municipality. Licensing of the retail outlets within the communities, and decision if the municipality wants to have stores in their communities. If the municipality decided to have distributors (stores) there are bylaws and property standards to be adhered to.

Outdoor Growers

The legal producers will have to incur set regulatory fees, excise tax and cost recovery. To produce the product they must compete with the "black market." Their costs in production will be monitored.

The current supply shortage has created the need to have outdoor grow operations. The outdoor grow industry is going to be the wave of the future to keep up with demand. There are presently three farms licensed to grow cannabis outdoors in Ontario.

Product grown outdoors costs .25/ gm compared to $1 to $3 / gm cost indoors. The regulations are very strict, where all grams are recorded, safe product must be cultivated, and property secured where the product is grown (24 hour security, video surveillance etc.). There are random inspections of staff and strict rules to secure the area just like indoor operations.

The expectation is that outdoor grows will create more jobs in the future.

The targeted age group is above 25 years and more women will consume the product. The intention of cannabis is not for the “high” but for skin care, pain management and medical needs.

Some concerns were brought forward from the audience in regards to the scent that it creates. It was mentioned that it is a plant that has a scent just like any other plant or even compared to agricultural smells (chicken, pig farms, etc.). The outdoor grow will have only one cycle of crop growth per year compared to continuous indoor production.

The final take away was that there must be community support for outdoor producers. The education and awareness component is very important.

The Future of Police Board Training

Fred Kaustinen, Executive Director, OAPSB

(Notes by E. Preuschat)

The objective of this interactive session was to build consensus on a common vision regarding future board training. The current training model is seen as outdated and somewhat simplistic.

At the conference, delegates completed a survey on training needs, and Fred Kaustinen, OAPSB Executive Director, presented the survey results. The consensus on governance style was that the majority govern by ‘receiving reports’ and most would like to spend more time doing strategic planning and community engagement. The top choices for training needs were: strategic planning, policy development, performance evaluations, external communications and meeting procedures.

Fred presented the draft ‘job description’ of police services boards:

- “To ensure that police actions and consequences are congruent with the community’s needs, values and expectations”

He then reviewed the tasks for the board (see/hear/speak – see notes in Strategic Planning Training section) along with the 6 main governance responsibilities:

1. strategic planning
2. establish policies for policing the community
3. hire top cop

4. evaluate chief's performance
5. establish HR policy framework
6. establish the budget

A lengthy and engaged group discussion followed on the whether the above captures the essence of police governance (generally agreed that it does), what training is required to fulfill these obligations, and what the members would like to see from the OAPSB with regard to education and board training.

Many points were raised during this group discussion, including:

- training should be customized to type of board (municipal vs OPP, large vs small)
- training should leverage existing technology to overcome geographical barriers
- guidelines on public engagement are needed – questions to ask, pitfalls to avoid
- a proper orientation program for new members is needed
- who will pay for training development? for delivery? for participation?
- there should be additional training for board chairs, including media and communications
- conferences are ideal for classroom type training
- OAPSB should become “a centre of excellence” for ongoing board education and training

Ontario Provincial Police Independent Review Panel

August 13, 2019

Mr. Fred Kaustinen
Executive Director
Ontario Association of Police Services Boards
180 Simcoe St.
London ON N6B 1H9

Dear Mr. Kaustinen,

Thank you for receiving this letter. We are writing to introduce ourselves and to invite the Ontario Association of Police Services Boards (OAPSB) and its members to engage with us.

The Ontario Provincial Police Independent Review Panel has been appointed by the Government of Ontario through Order in Council 643/2019 to undertake an independent review of the workplace culture of the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) in light of recent suicide deaths and mental health concerns of OPP members, as well as complaints about the workplace culture by current and former OPP staff.

We will be making recommendations on:

- The root causes and potential remedial actions to address the concerning rate of suicides, bullying and workplace harassment
- Concerns identified by frontline officers and other OPP staff that contribute to a negative workplace culture, and how those concerns have been or are being addressed
- How to improve the way complaints and concerns by frontline officers, civilian staff and the bargaining agents of the OPP are addressed by all levels of the organization

Police Services Boards in OPP-serviced communities represent the local community and we would really welcome the contributions that Boards can give us on behalf of the communities. We are writing to you to request your assistance in reaching these Boards and sharing this invitation to participate.

The OAPSB and its members can write to us at inquiries@opp-irp.ca with any questions and to share their contributions related to our mandate.

More information about the Panel's mandate and the Panel members is also available online at <https://www.ontario.ca/page/independent-review-ontario-provincial-police-workplace-culture>

Thank you for your consideration,

Mr. Chris Hales, Chair
Tecumseh Police Services Board
917 Lesperance Road
Tecumseh, Ontario N8N 1W9

Dear Mr. Hales:

Re: Policies and Practices related to section 35 of the Police Services Act (PSA)

I write to you to bring to your attention the importance of ensuring that the board policies related to section 35 of the PSA accurately reflect the language in the act.

The ministry recently became aware that there are inconsistencies in board policies governing the proceedings of board meetings. As you may be aware, section 35 of the PSA requires all board meetings to be open to the public. A board may only exclude the public from all or part of a meeting in the following limited circumstances:

- Subsection 35(4) authorizes a police services board to exclude the public from all or part of a meeting if it is of the opinion that:
  - (a) matters involving public security may be disclosed and, having regard to the circumstances, the desirability of avoiding their disclosure in the public interest outweighs the desirability of adhering to the principle that proceedings be open to the public; or
  - (b) intimate financial or personal matters or other matters may be disclosed of such a nature, having regard to the circumstances, that the desirability of avoiding their disclosure in the interest of any person affected or in the public interest outweighs the desirability of adhering to the principle that proceedings be open to the public.

The ministry encourages police services boards to review its policies and/or procedural by-laws and practices in order to ensure compliance with section 35 of the PSA. You may also wish to consult with your legal counsel to ensure your policies/practices accurately reflect the language in section 35.

If you have any questions, or require additional information, please contact the Police Services Advisor assigned to your board.

Sincerely,

Stephen Waldie

The Ministry of the Solicitor General (the Ministry) has received a number of queries regarding police services board members running in an election.

It is advisable that the board member disclose to his/her police services board the decision to be a candidate in the upcoming federal election as soon as possible. Members appointed by Lieutenant Governor in Council (LGIC) should also inform the Ministry as soon as possible.

It is the Ministry's position that a declaration of candidacy for the federal election is not necessarily cause for a board member's resignation. However, should a board member feel that, at any point in his/her political activity during the election period, he/she would be, or had the potential to be, in a real or perceived conflict of interest, it may warrant further consideration.

Should any individual police services board have its own rules and procedures related to this issue, including those developed in accordance with s.37 of the Police Services Act, the board member or the board may wish to discuss this particular situation with their legal counsel. The board member might also wish to consult with the municipality to determine if there are any municipal by-laws related to this issue.

All members of a police services board should review Ontario Regulation 421/97 Members of Police Services Boards – Code of Conduct.

Should a board member appointed by LGIC be elected, the board member is requested to please notify the Ministry and their police services board immediately.

For any questions, please contact your respective Police Services Advisor (see attached Zone Assignments), or Jeeti Sahota A/Manager, Operations Unit at (416) 702-4404 or via e-mail at Jeeti.Sahota@Ontario.ca.
